

BIO

INXS was an Australian rock band fronted by Michael Hutchence, whose magnetic stage presence made him the focal point of the band. The band achieved international success in the mid-to-late 1980s and early 1990s with the hit albums Listen Like Thieves, Kick, and X. Nobody can doubt they were a force to be reckoned with.

New Sensation INXS Tribute was founded in 2018, the lineup consists of Andy Brodigan (of Drastic Down and Soul Stripper), Doug Cisler (of Hysteria, Dr Crüe, and Anthem), Dusty Dunkle (of the Lovecats, Nothings Shocking, and Sun King), Greg McGwire (of Mysterious Ways and Sun King), and Rico Ybarra (of Mysterious Ways and Sun King). These five seasoned musicians bring an over the top, high energy live show every time they hit the stage.

New Sensation is a Seattle based tribute to INXS that captures the high-energy late 80s/early 90s vibe of INXS. New Sensation's production on INXS' greatest hits recreates the sights and sounds with hits like "What You Need", "Need You Tonight", "Devil Inside", "Never Tear Us Apart", "Suicide Blonde" and "New Sensation". They have performed in front of thousands of people at casinos, fairs, festivals and private events.
